Meta Ads in 3 steps

To get your funnel in front of buyers you only need three things: tracking, ideas, and a live ad. That's it. Here's the simple version — the algorithm does most of the heavy lifting now.

1 Set Up Tracking (The Pixel)

DO IT ONCE · THEN FORGET IT

What it is. The Pixel is a small snippet that tells Meta who visits your pages and who buys — so it can go find more people like your buyers. Without it you're flying blind and Meta can't optimise. Set it up once and you're done.

Meta's official Pixel setup guide

Meta Business Help Center → search "set up the Meta Pixel". Install once via Events Manager, then connect it to your funnel pages.

2 Come Up With Ad Ideas

THE REAL SKILL · NO SCREENSHOTS NEEDED

The formula. You don't invent ads from scratch — you remix what works. Every ad idea = an Angle × a Hook. Mix and match to generate a batch fast.

Angles — the reason to care

- The pain they want gone
- The dream/desire
- Speed (faster result)
- Ease (less effort)
- Proof / results
- Curiosity / a secret

Hooks — the first 3 seconds

- Bold claim
- Callout ("Attention [who]...")
- A question
- A result / screenshot
- A common mistake
- Before → after

Swipe smart: browse the Meta Ad Library to see competitors' live ads. If one's been running a long time, it's working — model the angle (never copy the ad).

Your move: pick 3–5 angles, write one hook for each = your first batch to test.

STEP 3

Publish Your Ad

Keep the setup dead simple. Modern Meta rewards good creative over clever targeting — so don't overthink the settings.

THE SIMPLE LAUNCH RECIPE

- Objective: Sales / Conversions
- Audience: broad — age + country only. Let Meta find the buyers.
- Structure: one campaign, 3–5 of your creatives in a single ad set
- Budget: start small — just enough to let it run a few days
- Then: let it run. Don't judge it on day one.

Meta's official "Create an ad" guide

Meta Business Help Center → search "create an ad". Follow the current steps — Meta keeps it up to date.

That's the quick-start. Enough to get live and start pulling in data. Reading your results, killing losers, and scaling your winners is a whole game of its own — that's covered in the full, in-depth ads training. For now: get one live. 🚀
